

BMATT (CZ)

GENERATING PEACE SUPPORT OPERATIONAL CAPABILITY

The British Military Advisory Training team is based in the Czech Republic. It provides training for students and contingents from some 30 countries. This training either takes place in the Czech Republic or in partner countries. BMATT (CZ) trains around 600 officers and soldiers every year.

PSO Training Courses. PSO Training courses are also conducted in Vyškov. Students are introduced to all aspects of PSO. They are also shown how to plan and conduct their own PSO training and exercises.

Junior Command and Instructor Courses

Using British experience, students are taught instructional methods, from skill at arms training, live firing training, to conducting Battle Field Exercises.

In Country Training Teams (ICTT)

BMATT Instructors deploy to partner nations to provide bespoke training packages. They also provide continuation support to BMATT trained instructors.
