

INTERNATIONAL SIGNALS COMMUNICATION OFFICER (ISCO)

Reference No
054/070

Duration
11 weeks

Location
International and Commonwealth
Training
Unit, HMS
COLLINGWOOD, Fareham

IELTS
6.5

Frequency
One per year.
Normally in the Autumn term

Aim of course

To prepare Officers from overseas navies for Communication duties at sea, and for Staff Communications Officer and instructional duties ashore.

Outline syllabus

- ◆ Naval Manoeuvring Instructions and Fleetwork
- ◆ Data Message Processing
- ◆ Tactical Voice Procedure
- ◆ Radio Communications Organisation
- ◆ Radio Communications Principles
- ◆ Visual Signalling Procedures
- ◆ Electronic Warfare Acquaint
- ◆ Ceremonial
- ◆ Physical and Communications Security
- ◆ Short Range Certificate (GMDSS)

Entry standards

- ◆ Must have at least 1 years sea experience, and have Bridge watchkeeping experience to a minimum of OOW2 level.

Examinations / qualifications gained

Continuous assessment and examinations in all modules.

Remarks

- ◆ This course is designed for junior officers with a limited military communications or technical background and not for those with any in-depth experience
- ◆ The course involves a great deal of self-study

International Defence Training (Royal Navy)

IDT1A Tel: +44 (0) 23 9254 8153
IDT1B Tel: +44 (0) 23 9254 8480

idtroyalnavy@btconnect.com www.mod.uk/idtroyalnavy