

Artillery Courses

Young Officer Artillery Course No: 409/007

Aim of Course	Outline of Syllabus	Remarks
To train Officers in core artillery skills and specific employment skills to prepare them to take their place in the Order of Battle of their first Regiment.	Common Module This includes an overview of structures, tactical groupings on deployment and capabilities across all disciplines. This is followed by a SPGR(GPS) Operator's course for both the navigation and introduction to survey. Other training includes tactics, recce, Close Support CP procedures, Observation of fire drills, IPB, Battlespace Spectrum Management, Urban Operations and a 36 hours' exercise. The Special to Discipline Module provides concentrated training on specific weapon system types.	The course is divided into a Common Module (9 weeks), a Special to Discipline Module (4 weeks) and 2 weeks of common tactics instruction, which includes the final exercise. The RSA is unable to provide ammunition for overseas students and course costs have been revised accordingly.

Rank Range	Entry Standards	Duration	Qualifications gained	Frequency
Second Lieutenant/ Lieutenant	IELTS level 5.5	15 weeks		3 courses per year

Contacts	IDT(A)1	IDT(A)2	IDT(A)3	IDT(A)
	Tel: +44 1980 615629 email: idta1-ops@artd.mod.uk	Tel: +44 1980 615624 email: idta2-ops@artd.mod.uk	Tel: +44 1980 615685 email: idta3-ops@artd.mod.uk	Fax +44 1980 618079