

Reference No

201/080

Duration

2 days

LocationRN School of Flight Deck
Operations,
RNAS CuldroseIELTS

5.5

Frequency15 courses
per year

FIREFIGHTING AND HELICOPTER OPERATING

Aim of course

To train Senior and Junior Ratings in all aspects of flight deck operations, aircraft fire fighting and aircraft crash rescue.

Outline syllabus

- ◆ Chemistry of types of fire (revision)
- ◆ Specialised aircraft fire fighting equipment, as applicable to class of ship (revision)
- ◆ Flight deck and hangar fire fighting arrangements
- ◆ Flight deck, hangar and general fire prevention precautions
- ◆ Fire fighting protective clothing, care and maintenance
- ◆ Rescue procedures, emergency break-in points, door jettison, fire access panels, markings, release of aircrew
- ◆ Fire hazards associated with Aircraft Armament
- ◆ Practical fire fighting and simulated rescue, using all flight deck fire fighting equipment
- ◆ Helicopter danger areas. Dress on the Flight Deck. Safety precautions on the Flight Deck, Foreign Object damage and prevention
- ◆ Flight safety. Explanation and film. General awareness when working with aircraft. Importance of individual flight safety contributions
- ◆ Practical Flight Deck operations, acting as Flight Deck member. Practical lashing drills
- ◆ HIFR procedure/VERTREP Procedures

Entry standards

As the course reference material is on CD ROM, students must be computer literate and conversant with Microsoft Applications

International Defence Training (Royal Navy)

IDT1A Tel: +44 (0) 23 9254 8153

IDT1B Tel: +44 (0) 23 9254 8480

idtroyalnavy@btconnect.com www.mod.uk/idtroyalnavy