

OFFICERS' STANDARD COURSE

Reference No
019/008

Duration
5 days

Location
PHOENIX
CBRNDC
Training Group,
HMS EXCELLENT,
Portsmouth

IELTS
6

Frequency
25 courses
per year

Aim of course

To provide Officers of any specialisation with a basic theoretical and practical knowledge of CBRNDC matters.

Outline syllabus

Topics covered include:

- ◆ CBRNDC organisation
- ◆ States of readiness
- ◆ Risk and control markings
- ◆ Effect of damage
- ◆ Stability
- ◆ Ship pumping
- ◆ Flooding
- ◆ Firefighting arrangements
- ◆ Emergency electrical supply arrangements
- ◆ Protection
- ◆ The medical aspects of CBRN warfare
- ◆ Practical exercises
- ◆ Syndicate work
- ◆ OOD, and Fire and Repair Party Post Officer's Duties

Entry standards

- ◆ Must have completed a general basic Naval Officer training

Examinations/ qualifications gained

Final examination leading to Course Certificate.

Remarks

- ◆ The number of eligible F&C students on each course is limited
- ◆ Respirators are required for this course. Students are encouraged to bring their own national issue respirator
- ◆ This course does not include practical Firefighting training or Damage Repair Instructional Unit instruction

International Defence Training (Royal Navy)

IDT1A Tel: +44 (0) 23 9254 8153
IDT1B Tel: +44 (0) 23 9254 8480

idtroyalnavy@btconnect.com www.mod.uk/idtroyalnavy