

Infantry Courses

Mortar B MFC Course Short Course No: 477/045

Aim of Course	Outline of Syllabus	Remarks
To train students to command a mortar section and operate as an Bravo Mortar Fire Controller (MFC) in all phases of war. Supervise 81mm Live Firing	To qualify NCOs in the Operational and administrative duties of a 81mm Mortar Fire Controller (B) MFC in order to meet the Operational requirements of the Field Army. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Operate the 81mm and 60mm mortars</li> <li>• Apply battle procedure at Platoon and Level</li> <li>• Apply Security and protection measures</li> <li>• Operate as a BMFC during offensive operations</li> <li>• Command an 81mm and 60mm Command Post and act as an BMFC during defensive operations</li> <li>• Command an 81mm and 60mm Command Post and act as an BMFC during an advance to contact</li> <li>• Administer a Command Post in all phases of war.</li> </ul>

Rank Range	Entry Standards	Duration	Qualifications gained	Frequency
Lance Corporal to Corporal	IELTS level 6. Students must be experienced in handling the 81mm weapon system. They must have experience in live firing. They must have a basic knowledge of Fire Control and its associated equipments. Students will be tested in a number of areas which include general knowledge, map reading, Weapons Handling and an 8 mile march. Students must have done an executives cadre at least 6 months before attending the BMFC course. They must also be competent in the use of Bowman along with a high level of physical fitness.	2 Weeks	Mor (C) (07) - 2594 B MFC - 2811

Contacts	IDT(A)1	IDT(A)2	IDT(A)3	IDT(A)
	Tel: +44 1980 615629 email: idta1-ops@artd.mod.uk	Tel: +44 1980 615624 email: idta2-ops@artd.mod.uk	Tel: +44 1980 615685 email: idta3-ops@artd.mod.uk	Fax +44 1980 618079