

Senior Sergeants' Major Seminar

Aim

To brief Senior Sergeants' Major and other Warrant Officers from Partner Countries on the management, training and operational roles of the British Warrant Officer

General Points

- 1 x seminar per year
- Duration 3 days
- Up to 20 candidates
- Multinational – Usually 1 attendee per country
- Usually Senior Warrant Officers – depending on the country

Objectives and Content

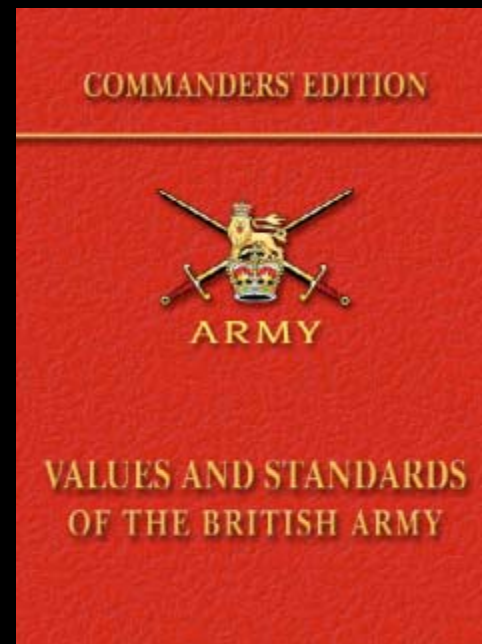

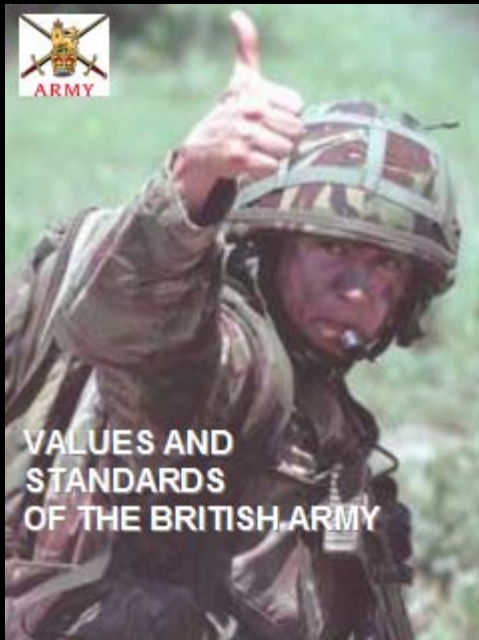

- The role of the Sergeant Major
 - In Barracks
 - On Training
 - On Operations

Content

- The British Soldier's Career
- British Army Discipline Procedures
- Management and Development of subordinates

Content

- Warrant Officer J4 Chain
- Warrant Officer on Operations

Content

- Officer / Warrant Officer Relationship
- Warrant Officers' Course

Individual Presentations

- Individuals are asked to give a 10 – 15 minute presentation on their own Armed Forces
- Popular with everyone
- Often a new experience!

Additional Activities

- Austerlitz Battlefield Tour
- Course Dinner

Visit Ongoing BMATT Course

- Meet students from their own country
- Promotes BMATT Activities

Summary

- The Senior Sergeants' Major Seminar is a 3 day programme
- An informal course with emphasis placed on discussion and the sharing of views.
- BMATT do not teach students how to be a Senior Sergeant Major but the British experience is the lead for discussion
- All lectures and discussions are based on the experience of British Warrant Officers on Operations.