

Infantry Courses

Mortar A MFC Course Short Course No: 477/046

Aim of Course	Outline of Syllabus	Remarks
To train students to operate as an Alpha Mortar Fire Controller (MFC) in all phases of war. Supervise 81mm Live Firing.	To qualify NCOs in the Operational and administrative duties of a 81mm Mortar Fire Controller (A) MFC in Order to meet the Operational requirements of the Field Army. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Operate the 81mm and 60mm mortars</li> <li>• Apply battle procedure at Platoon and Battle Group Level</li> <li>• Apply Security and protection measures</li> <li>• Operate as an AMFC during offensive operations</li> <li>• Operate as an AMFC during defensive operations</li> <li>• Operate as an AMFC during an advance to contact</li> <li>• Administer an MFC party in all phases of war.</li> </ul>

Rank Range	Entry Standards	Duration	Qualifications gained	Frequency
Corporal to Sergeant	IELTS level 6. Students must be experienced in handling the 81mm weapon system. They must have extensive experience in live firing. They must have extensive experience in Fire Control and its associated equipments. Students will be tested in a number of areas which include general knowledge, map reading, map &amp; Protractor Plotting and Fire Control. Students must have experience in operating as a B MFC for at least two years before attending the A MFC course. They must also be competent in the use of Bowman along with a high level of physical fitness.	2 Weeks	A MFC - 2810 MOR (C) 07

Contacts	IDT(A)1 Tel: +44 1980 615629 email: idta1-ops@artd.mod.uk	IDT(A)2 Tel: +44 1980 615624 email: idta2-ops@artd.mod.uk	IDT(A)3 Tel: +44 1980 615685 email: idta3-ops@artd.mod.uk	IDT(A) Fax +44 1980 618079
------------------------	---	---	---	--